Urban Design

From the largest-scale plans down to the smallest site and building details, urban designers strive at every level to create beautiful, sustainable, vibrant, safe, and inclusive places. Our urban designers contribute to planning studies, policy development related to public realm and built form, the development application review process in terms of urban design comments, design workshops and Ontario Land Tribunal evidence and expert witness testimony. Our Section includes Heritage Planning which plays an important role in preserving Toronto's heritage by advising City Council on matters relating to the Ontario Heritage Act and acting as a professional resource for the community and property owners on the conservation of the City's historic resources. We engage in civic design improvements, including administering the developer's percent for public art program and the design review panel. Our Section also includes City Planning's graphics team which provides mapping, architectural visualization and 3D modelling.
