

Community and Emergency Services

Parks and Recreation contributes to Toronto's quality of life by promoting and enhancing the social and physical development of children and youth and by leading the way to lifelong active living for residents of Toronto through a wide variety of leisure and recreational opportunities that welcome everyone. The division is also responsible for community development, parks, including park and open space planning initiatives. The division manages and maintains facilities and operates specialized services, including the ferries, golf courses, waterfront and regional parks systems.

Parks Planning & Strategic Initiatives

The Parks Planning & Strategic Initiatives (PPSI) branch is responsible for the acquisition, planning and design of new parkland and recreation facilities. PPSI advances improvements to Toronto's parks and recreation systems through parkland acquisition and real estate matters, local park plans, park design initiatives, strategic projects and Parks & Recreation-specific responses to transit projects. The branch develops projects for inclusion in the divisional 10-year capital plan and leads the delivery of new parks in partnership with third parties.

The Park Design section manages a diverse portfolio of projects, including the delivery of strategic park projects, park master plans, developer-implemented parks, the review of major infrastructure initiatives, and collaborating with partners such as Waterfront Toronto on the delivery of PR assets. Park Design unit also provides park design input on development applications to ensure that the City's parks and open space objectives are achieved as developments are approved. The section includes both a Strategic Projects section and a Landscape Architecture Unit responsible for the delivery of new parks secured through development.
