

TORONTO Development Review

Development & Growth Services

The Development Review (DR) division is a multidisciplinary team that advances development applications through timely, high-quality review. Development Review sits at the centre of the development system managing policy and zoning changes, leading local frameworks, land division and site plan control.

The Development Review team has five geographic District Teams, each of which has three or four geographic Section Teams. Please refer to the Development Review Division Map (PDF), which is a detailed map of the districts and sections.
